Welcome

Call to Worship

All you who delight in the Sacred, come and worship the Creator.

Thanks be to God who blesses us all and rejoices in the uniqueness of every body and being.

The Holy takes on flesh in every gender and sexual orientation, every race and ability, every body size and body type.

Each embodied difference is a unique glimpse of Holiness and Awe.

Blessed are those who search for God among the lives of the oppressed, the betrayed, the turned-away, and the condemned.

Blessed are those who receive with joy the gifts of God enfleshed among us.

The Sacred is with us.

Let us worship and be transformed.

Prayer of Invocation

Opening Songs led by Jan Davis and Kristina Smith:

Bring Many Names

Bring many names, beautiful and good,
 celebrate, in parable and story,
 holiness in glory, living, loving God.
 Hail and Hosanna! Bring many names!

Strong mother God, working night and day,
 planning all the wonders of creation,
 setting each equation, genius at play:
 Hail and Hosanna, strong mother God!

Warm father God, hugging every child,
 feeling all the strains of human living,
 caring and forgiving till we're reconciled:
 Hail and Hosanna, warm father God!

Old, aching God, grey with endless care,
 calmly piercing evil's new disguises,
 glad of good surprises, wiser than despair:
 Hail and Hosanna, old, aching God!

Young, growing God, eager, on the move,
 saying no to falsehood and unkindness, crying out for justice, giving all you have:
 Hail and Hosanna, young, growing God!
 Great, living God, never fully known,
 joyful darkness far beyond our seeing,

closer yet than breathing, everlasting home:
Hail and Hosanna, great, living God!

O God of Every Nation

O God of every nation,
of every race and land,
redeem the whole creation
with your almighty hand;
where hate and fear divide us
and bitter threats are hurled,
in love and mercy guide us
and heal our strife-torn world.

From search for wealth and power
and scorn of truth and right,
from trust in bombs that shower
destruction through the night,
from pride of race and nation
and blindness to your way,
deliver every nation,
eternal God, we pray.

Keep bright in us the vision
of days when war shall cease,
when hatred and division
give way to love and peace, till dawns the morning glorious when truth and justice reign and Christ shall rule victorious
o'er all the world's domain.

The Lord's Prayer

(we invite you to recite whatever version you have learned)

Our God in heaven,
Holy be your name,

Your kingdom come,
 Your will be done,
 On earth as it is in heaven.
 Give us this day our daily bread
 And forgive us our sins,
 As we forgive those who sin against us.
 Save us in the time of trial,
 And deliver us from evil.
 For yours is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

Scripture Reading: Psalm 144:3-4, 12-15 and I Peter 2:4-10

O Lord, what are human beings that you regard them, or mortals that you think of them?

They are like a breath; their days are like a passing shadow.

May our sons in their youth be like plants full grown, our daughters like corner pillars, cut for the building of a palace.

May our barns be filled, with produce of every kind; may our sheep increase by thousands, by tens of thousands in our fields, and may our cattle be heavy with young. May there be no breach in the walls, no exile, and no cry of distress in our streets.

Happy are the people to whom such blessings fall; happy are the people whose God is the Lord.

Come to him, a living stone, though rejected by mortals yet chosen and precious in God's sight, and like living stones, let yourselves be built into a spiritual house, to be a holy priesthood, to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. For it stands in scripture: "See, I am laying in Zion a stone, a cornerstone chosen and precious; and whoever believes in him will not be put to shame." To you then who believe, he is precious; but for those who do not believe, "The stone that the builders rejected has become the very head of the corner," and "A stone that makes them stumble, and a rock that makes them fall." They stumble because they disobey the word, as they were destined to do. But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, God's own people, in order that you may proclaim the mighty acts of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light. Once you were not a people, but now you are God's people; once you had not received mercy, but now you have received mercy.

Sermon: "Cornerstones" Rev Tim Phillips

Closing Hymn: A Place At The Table

For everyone born, a place at the table,
 for everyone born, clean water and bread,
 a shelter, a space, a safe place for growing,
 for everyone born, a star overhead.

Chorus:

And God will delight when we are creators
 of justice and joy, compassion and peace:

yes, God will delight when we are creators
of justice, justice and joy.

For genders diverse, a place at the table,
revising the roles, deciding the share,
with wisdom and grace dividing the power,
for woman and man, a system that's fair. [Refrain]

Chorus

For young and for old, a place at the table,
a voice to be heard, a part in the song,
the hands of a child in hands that are wrinkled,
for young and for old, the right to belong. [Refrain]

Chorus

For just and unjust, a place at the table,
abuser, abused, with need to forgive,
in anger, in hurt, a mindset of mercy,
for just and unjust, a new way to live. [Refrain]

Chorus

For gay and for straight, a place at the table,
a covenant shared, a welcoming place,
a rainbow of race and gender and color,
for gay and for straight, the chalice of grace [Refrain]

Chorus

For everyone born, a place at the table,
To live without fear, and simply to be,
To work, to speak out, to witness and worship,
For everyone born, the right to be free

Chorus
