When four strangers find themselves sitting together at a restaurant on Christmas, it's the last place any of them want to be. Unsure of where their lives are headed, they share their dreams and struggles with the new acquaintances in their midst. And as they open up, they discover something they were all missing. In this offbeat and heartwarming comedy about peace and adventure, the special of the day is family. Open on Christmas is written by Kristin Trease and Isaiah Custer.
